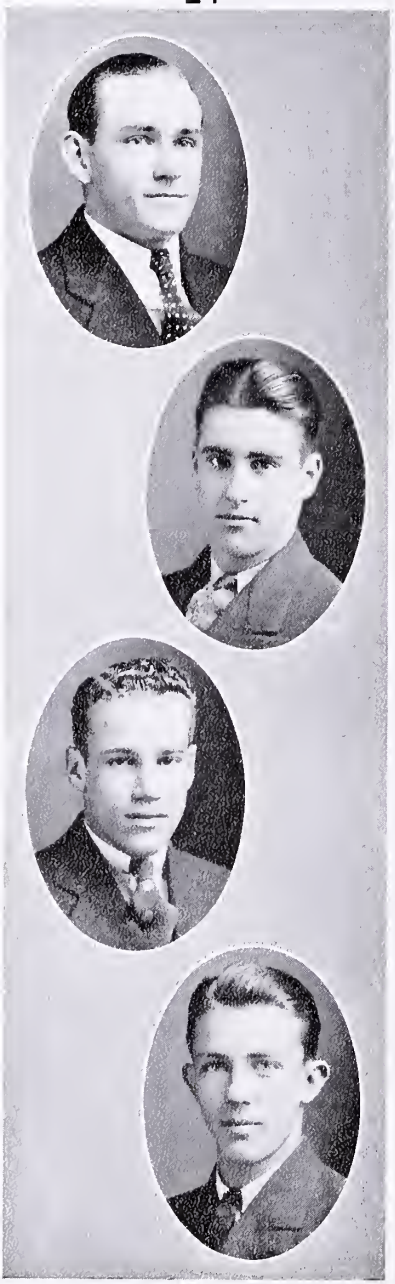
Classes

CLASS OF 1935



ENNIS HOWARD

Pres. Academic

Most popular boy and best all-round,
A more desirable student cannot be found.

GOSE BOGGS

Vice-Pres. Academic

He is a very good sport, so they all say,
And greatly ensnared in the feminine way.

CARL BRITIAN

Treas. P. G.

A name and fame and great men's praise
He will surely have all of his days.

FORREST BERENS

Sec. General

He's loyal and true and just can't resist
The feminine charms of a certain young miss.

CLASS OF 1935

Louise Dunn
Academic

She's fair, clever, serene and calm,
Fortune has breathed on her feminine charm.

J. J. Orfield
General

He's quiet in school—has acquired much knowledge,
Which insures him great success in college.

Mae McClellan
General

Talk about friendly, lovable and gay,
We'll show you all these traits in Mae.

Katherine DeArmond
General

Divinely tall—divinely fair,
Possessing grace and charm so rare.

William Tauscher
General

How rich that forehead's calm expanse
How bright that sharp detecting glance.

Mamie Sue Fleenor
Commercial

A quiet demure and studious lass,
So different is she from most of the class.

CLASS OF 1935

FLORINE WOLFE
General

Her air, her manner, all who saw admired,
Courteous, tho' coy and gentle, tho' retired.

CARLTON HARKRADER
Academic

In arguing too, the teacher owned his skill,
For e'en though vanquished, he could argue still.

HELEN MUMPOWER
General

Unselfishness, beauty and friendship true,
All these, Helen, are found in you.

DOUGLAS HAWTHORNE
Academic

A full rich nature, free to trust,
Faithful and always sternly just.

DORTHY REMSEN
General

She kept the noiseless tenor of her way.
And quietly did her work from day to day.

JULIAN MOORMAN
Academic

Would you know his qualifications?
He's a lad that meets well all occasions.

CLASS OF 1935

Edna Garrett
General

Smiling comes so easy she never wears a frown,
If she feels one coming she always smiles it down.

Jack Miller
General

Few may know him—he seems mild and meek,
He just drops around about once a week.

Hattie Bridgeman
General

We grant although she had much wit,
She was very shy of using it.

Madge White
Commercial

A very good friend, so demure and wise,
Success will be yours, we all surmise.

Lewis Keesling
Commercial

We grant he's quiet in all of his ways,
Industrious he is, and worthy of praise.

Celeste Evans
General

With that continuous sweetness which with ease
Pleases all round it from the wish to please.

MAE VICKERS
Commercial

Quick and clever and sure I say,
She came prepared most every day.

FRED RADER, JR.
General

Fred is the boy with the golden voice,
We suppose Grand Opera will be his choice.

DORTHY BROOKS
General

Her very frowns are fairer far
Than smiles of other maidens are.

VIRGINIA STINNETTE
General

A girl who'll always be true,
To the school that helped her in a way or two.

JUNIOR BARKER
General

A star in athletics—he plays like whiz
He'll make his mark wherever he is.

MARGARET GAUT
Academic

Not too serious, not too gay,
A real good pal in every way.

CLASS OF 1935

Edith Akard
General

To the best of life does Edith tend,
To all who know her she is a friend.

Hunter Galloway
Academic

He's easily ensnared by feminine wiles,
And just for the ladies he saves his smiles.

Mildred Mumpower
General

This girl who is so very tasty,
Will never get a bit too hasty.

Alfred Crosswhite
General

Thinking is but an idle waste of thought,
The time he spends thereon would come to naught.

Mamie Luttral
General

Quiet and lonely is this girl
Who doesn't care to mix with the world.

William Combs
General

When you need to go somewhere
William you'll find will get you there.

MILDRED FLEENOR
General

Her air is so modest, her aspect so meek,
So simple her charms and yet so sweet.

EDWIN YOUNG
Commercial

A quiet boy, minds his own affairs,
Is not burdened with a world of cares.

LUCILLE SHIPLEY
General

With a jest on her tongue, and a smile on lips,
She's bubbling with fun to her finger-tips.

ERNEST WADE
General

The captain whose playing no one can surpass,
A worthy member of the Senior Class.

PAULINE SPAHR
General

Her modest manner and wholesome air
Show her wise and good as she's fair.

ROBERT BOGGS, JR.
General

Air-minded is Bobby—he aspires to fly,
Success to you, Bobby—we hope you rise high.

JACKIE FISHER
Academic

She's bright—vivacious as every one knows,
And she shall have "Musick" wherever she goes.

KEYS BUCHANAN
Academic

A sociable creature and musical, too,
And fond of the ladies is Keys—'tis true.

JANE MCCLELLAN
General

Fair and frivolous, has a very good brain,
No cares ever furrow the brow of Jane.

HELEN WAGNER
Commercial

A studious creature, industrious, too,
Few accomplish all that you do.

JACK LEONARD
Academic
General

Wherever his footsteps went
There was joy and merriment.

MARJORIE CLAY
General

A creature not too bright or good,
For human nature's daily food.

HELEN PRICE
General

Petite and stunning—a decided brunette,
An attractive creature as ever you met.

WILLIAM BARNES
Academic

Studious and clever, a boy of worth,
Yet always ready for joy and mirth.

ELEANOR NAVE
Academic

Most studious girl in the class they agree,
Quite popular too with J. and C.

JAMES WHITAKER
General

A happy lad is James, indeed,
Who ne'er the command of silence did heed.

MARGARET POWELL
Commercial

Full of pep and vigor and vim,
May your cup of joy be full to brim.

LEWIS REGAN
General

He lives apart from the rest of the world,
And does not bother with the social whirl.

CLASS OF 1935

Billy Caldwell
General

With dancing, talking—with song
She made merry the whole year long.

George Calhoun
General

He goes through school in the easiest way,
And never lets work disturb his play.

Verna Czarnocki
Commercial

A maiden she is of dignity and poise,
Just the same with the girls and boys.

Jimmie Leonard
Academic

A smile for all, a welcome glad,
A genial winning way he had.

Genevieve Moneyhun
General

She was a form of life and light
When seen, became a part of sight.

Milton Hudson
General

Thy indistinct expressions seem
As if you were walking in a dream.

MARGARET BONHAM
Academic

As welcome as sunshine in every place
Is the beaming countenance of Bud's face.

CHARLES GREEVER
Academic

When there is talking or gossip, he's in it,
For who can say so much to the minute.

LAURA MONTGOMERY
General

Man's imperial race ensnare,
And beauty draws us with a single hair.

JAMES JONES
Academic

He plays in the band, on the team, and all such,
And nothing ever disturbed "Cotton" much.

EDNA LOLLIS
General

A willing heart, both good and kind,
A truer friend is hard to find.

LEE FLEENOR
General

Unthinking and idle is Lee, we know,
He laughs and talks and lets things go.

Charlene Owen
General

Brown curly locks and pretty, too,
Frivolous and funny, but always true.

Adam Dunn
Scientific

His interests are in science they say,
And other things a bit more gay.

Lena Trivette
General

A girl—a pal to everyone,
A friend indeed who should be won.

Charles Hall
Academic

Happy am I, from care quite free,
Why can't they all be content like me.

Nancy Jane Goodpasture
General

A girl whose studies may be slow,
But one who will always make a go.

Gordon Kilgore
Academic

A lad of great wit and wisdom is he,
A more interesting person you never did see.

JOE ROGERS
Academic

A talented creature on whom fortune smiles
And grants her the lure of feminine wiles.

ED HAUN
General

He is a boy of smiles and laughter,
We predict for him a happy hereafter.

MAE ELIZABETH CASSELL
General

Where she is, there's lots of fun,
Troubles from her will always run.

FRANK THOMAS
General

A quiet, artistic and gifted young man,
A loyal senior, does all that he can.

JEANETTE WOLFE
Academic

Unique and unusual in feminine charm,
She flirts with the boys but does them no harm.

TOM SMITH, JR.
Academic

So well he declaims, plays ball like a breeze,
And has gone through school with the greatest of ease.

CHARLOTTE WILLIS
Academic

Blessed with a temper of unclouded ray
Which can make tomorrow as cheerful as today.

JOHN WERTH
Academic

Tall, clever, handsome John Werth,
Irresistible to all the young ladies on earth.

HARRIET COOPER
General

A dainty, attractive and cute little miss,
Whose feminine charms no one can resist.

KEMP SALYER
General

Let me live, let me love, let me sin if I must,
Who knows but tomorrow I'll only be dust.

ERBY FEATHERS
General

While men have eyes, or ears, or taste,
He'll always find a resting place.

CLARICE KITCHEN
General

Self possessed and quite worth while,
With carefree manners and an upright smile.

Class History

In the fall of 1931, a large group of inexperienced Freshmen began wandering in the halls of Virginia High, guided by some experienced guides, seeking bits of knowledge here and there. Many of our number made outstanding records in athletics as well as in studies. Some played football or basket-ball while others belonged to the Public Speaking Club, or either of the Glee Clubs, and some even made the Honor Roll Club. A very remarkable class indeed.

The next step took us to the position of Sophomores. The main events of this year centered around football. The team made an excellent record for themselves by winning eight out of ten games, tying one with Salem, and scoring 152 points to opponents' 69. Another event of the year was the presentation of Monarch Minstrels, directed by Mr. French Sensabauch, with a large cast composed of Va. High students, which was very well received.

In the role of Juniors, we were more serious about our school work; there was less play and foolishness and more work. We were learning to value an education. This year, under the supervision of Miss Mort, Junior class sponsor, we were host to the Senior Class at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet. At this outstanding affair, with Ennis Howard, class president, acting as toastmaster, many appropriate toasts were given by members of the Junior Class as well as the Seniors.

This year the football team made a record very seldom surpassed. On a ten-game schedule we won every game, including the Va.-Tenn. game, with a total of 231 points to our opponents' 8. We also played Appalachia in a post season game, defeating them by a score of 34 to 13. This is a record of which we are proud.

As a Senior class we are more serious than ever. With Ennis Howard again president of our class, and Charlotte Willis as Editor-in-Chief of the VIRGINIAN, we begin preparation for our graduation. There is the annual cramming for exams, report cards, Class Night exercises, the Baccalaureate Sermon, and finally the Graduation Exercises, and we leave dear old Virginia High forever, wondering how they can get along without us, and what the world holds in store for us.

Respectfully submitted,
GORDON KILGORE, Historian.

Jan. 10, 1935.

Class Prophecy

502 Lee Street,
Bristol, Virginia,
June 20, 1945.

Dearest Bud:

Now that you and Tommy have returned from your long trip around the world, you are probably wondering what all the class of '35 have been doing in your absence.

What a distinguished group we have become! Gose and Bobby Boggs, now world famous aviators, are preparing another non-stop flight around the world. George Calhoun, Master Mariner, is plotting their route. A blazing sign on one of Broadway's theatres flashes forth the names of two of our former classmates—John Werth and Jackie Fischer—stars in the play "While We Live," which made its author, Charles Greever, famous among literary and theatrical circles. Having worked hard to realize their ambition of high school days, James Jones and Tom Smith have become prominent doctors in their own hospital. With them are Lena Trivette, Pauline Spahr, and Virginia Stinette as nurses, and Mildred and Helen Mumpower as laboratory assistants. Forrest Berens is now a brain specialist in New York. He certainly used his brain when he married Charlotte Willis! Charline Owens is a model at the Ritz Fashion Salon in New York.

No doubt you have heard about the completion of Bristol's most beautiful skyscraper, and you will enjoy knowing the part that members of our class had in its construction. Douglas Hawthorne was the contractor; James Whitaker, the electrician; and Mae Cassel, Margaret Gaut, Edna Garret, and Clarice Kitchen, the interior decorators for the most exclusive offices. The main attraction of the building is Julian Moorman's fashionable Roof Garden. Really his "first nite" was wonderful. All of the home town celebrities came for the television broadcast. How you would have enjoyed hearing Genevieve Moneyhun, far-famed blues singer, render "Frankie and Johnnie"! Fred Rader, Jane McClellan, and Celeste Evans, now great opera stars, came from New York to appear on the program, and Keys Buchanan, the second Rubinoff, played with the Roof Garden Cabaret Orchestra. Gordon Kilgore is manager of the television station and Lewis Regin the announcer. In partnership with Gordon is Billy Kilgore, who has perfected the latest development in television. Hostesses for the Roof Garden are Lucile Shipley, Kemp Salyer, and Mae McClellan. This new skyscraper houses the American Enterprise Corporation, of which Ennis Howard is president and Charles Hall vice-president. In one part of the building Florine Wolfe and Mildred Fleenor operate Bristol's best beauty parlor.

The majority of our class have settled in Bristol. Hunter Galloway, Lewis Keesling and William Barnes are distinguished lawyers here. Their secretaries are Edna Lollis, Dorothy Brooks, and Mamie Luttrel, respectively. Stuart Sharret is Scout Executive for the Sequoya Council. Ed Haun is a certified public accountant and Jack Leonard, a successful mechanical engineer. Carl Harkrader owns the best newspaper in Bristol with Jimmy Leonard as its managing editor, Adam Dunn star reporter, Edith Akard society editor, Walter Wisler telegraph editor, and Frank Thomas manager of the printing department. Lee Fleenor and Erby Feathers own the large Motor Center here, where recently was shown the new 1945 Peerless auto, designed by William Combs. The main plant of the Peerless Company is located here with Milton Hudson as the president. Verna Czarnocki is one of Milton's secretaries, Morgan Goodpasture his sales manager, and Helen Wagner his capable secretary.

Surely you would be surprised at the changes at Virginia High. Bill Taucher, the new superintendent, is partial to members of his class, it seems, for he has employed Madge White as his secretary, Katherine DeArmond and Ernest Wade for basket-ball and football coaches for the girls and boys, Laura Montgomery and Dorothy Remsen as home economics teachers, Edwin Young manual training instructor, and Eleanor Nave head of the history department.

You remember, of course, that Jeanette Wolfe married soon after we left Virginia High and moved to Spartanburg, S. C., where her heart has always been. And Karl Ault is living in Washington now. He has a very good job as a civil engineer there.

Do write and tell me if you saw Louise Dunn and Marjorie Clay were in Paris while you were there. I hear they have gained quite a reputation as art critics.

JOE.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of the Bristol, Virginia, High School, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and thirty-five, being of sound mind and good health, do hereby make and publish this following: Our Last Will and Testament.

First: To our beloved Faculty we leave a fine record and a pleasant memory of a quiet orderly Senior class of high scholastic standing.

Second: To the Juniors we leave the privilege of being the Seniors and the front rows in chapel including the piano bench.

Third: A few of us have some special and very personal gifts which we wish to bequeath to our fellow classmates before we leave the halls of V. H. S.

I, Julian Moorman, leave to Thurman Sorah my ability as a cheer leader.

I, Ennis Howard, will a pepper to E. J. Johnson.

I, Charlene Owen, leave to Virginia Richmond my art of capturing hearts.

I, Mae Cassell, leave my ability to (pop) gum to Julia Warren.

I, Bud Bonham, leave my basket-ball ability to Charlotte Cline.

I, Carl Harkrader, being of unsound mind, leave to S. T. Copenhaver my ability to bluff.

I, Ernest Wade, do hereby will to Ed Wilson my ability to play football.

I, Forrest Berens, do will to Lawrence Barker one jar of sheik grease for his hair.

I, John Werth, hereby will to Landon Hagy my position of school sheik.

I, Cotton Jones, hereby will to A. F. Kelly my position as laziest of Seniors.

I, Carl Brittain, do hereby will to Mr. Goble my hair curler so he will become as attractive as I am.

I, Jackie Fisher, leave my success with Musick to anyone desiring a musical career.

We, Charles Hall, Douglas Hawthorne, Charlie Greever, and William Combs, do will our privilege of loafing in the hall to Kermit Kegley, and Thomas Noblitt.

I, Frank Thomas, will my ability of drawing to Mr. Roller.

I, Jack Miller, will my ability in athletics and my privilege coming to school once a week to my younger brother Jim.

I, Harriet Cooper, leave my heart to a Junior boy.

I, Eleanor Nave, will my position in Miss Hillman's room between Carl Harkrader and Julian Moorman to Marjorie Simpson.

I, Tom Smith, will my quiet and gentle ways and soft voice to Mr. Baker in hope that it will prove a help to him next year in coaching the team.

I, Genevieve Moneyhun, leave my voice and general talent in entertaining to Golden Cantwell.

I, Bobby Boggs, leave my place by the window to Keith Venable.

I, Charlotte Willis, do leave to anyone who will take it, my trials and tribulations as editor-in-chief of the VIRGINIAN.

I, Junior Barker, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my athletic ability to Ivil Lytz.

Witnesses: MISS HANSON, MISS HILLMAN, Senior Sponsors.

Signed: JUNIOR BARKER, Legator.

Class Poem

Four years have passed of work and fun,
And now our goal is almost won;
Sadly now we say good-bye
To our school, Virginia High.

Now sadness fills our heart
That our chosen ways must part;
In our soul resounds a sigh
When we say our last good-bye.

Now that we stand on the threshold of life
Ready to join in that endless strife,
Our trusting hope well reaches the sky,
Founded on our work at Virginia High.

Now lift your voices clear in praise
To memory of our high school days,
Ever loyal, we will try
Always to honor Virginia High.

—Jackie Fischer.

Gift from Class of '34

The gift from the Senior Class of 1934 is the most cherished and beloved that could have been given to the school. It is a hand painted portrait of Mrs. Virginia Parrish, former Principal of the School. At present the picture is hanging in the Library where it will ever be an inspiration to those who have known and loved Mrs. Parrish.

"The Cabaret"

Thursday evening, Nov. 8, 1934, the combined Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs of Virginia High presented "The Cabaret" to a very attentive and appreciative audience.

The program featured Bill Brinkley and Harriet Cooper in a vocal duet; Fred Rader, Billy Holmes, Keys Buchanan, and Julian Moorman in vocal solos; Kathleen Martin and Harriet Cooper, solo dancers; Margaret Thomas, Irene Counts and Jackie Fischer, Lois King, Lois Edwards and Celeste Evans, trios; Genevieve Moneyhun and Joe Rogers in a duet tap dance; Genevieve Moneyhun, blues singer. All of the above except, of course, the dancers were assisted by the chorus.

This program was given for the benefit of the 1935 VIRGINIAN.

Athletic Banquet

One of the most beautiful social events of the year was the Athletic Banquet which was tended by the boys and girls of the football and basket-ball teams, by the Parent-Teachers Association. The High School gymnasium, the scene of the banquet, was lovely with its valentine decorations throughout both the hall and tables. The unique place cards were miniature football and basket-ball players.

The players and their guests numbered more than one hundred.

At the close of the program the toast was given thanking the Parent-Teachers Association and all those who had assisted in making possible such a pleasant occasion.

The Junior-Senior Banquet

The Juniors, with the help of the Parent-Teachers Association, entertained the Seniors with the Annual Banquet. The gymnasium was decorated in combinations of Junior and Senior colors and flowers.

Class songs and toasts were rendered and everyone enjoyed the occasion very much.

Virginia, 6—Tennessee, 7

Before a very large crowd of spectators, Tennessee High School won the city championship for the first time in four years.

Tennessee played above the standard set by them during the season, while Virginia played their worst game of the season. The Virginians were kept on the defense all during the first half while Tennessee romped around at their leisure. At the opening of the second half the Virginians turned in their only real football of the game. Reaching the kickoff, they marched for a touchdown, the try for extra point failed. Tennessee received the kickoff, and taking to the air, broke through the Virginia defense for a touchdown. The try for extra point was blocked but both teams were offsides, which gave Tennessee another play. They passed for the winning point and the game ended, with score 7 to 6 for Tennessee.

Virginia, 7—Coeburn, 0

The Orange and Black football team of Virginia High defeated the strong Coeburn team, Friday night, Oct. 27, 7 to 0.

Coeburn put up a strong fight throughout the game but could not compete with the Orange team. The Virginians scored in the opening minute of play by a pass from Howard to Sorah. Captain Wade place-kicked for convertment. Several other times the Virginians threatened to score but lost the ball on downs or fumbles. The Coeburn team never threatened to score but one time during the game.

Virginia, 14—Appalachia, 0

The fighting Virginians defeated Appalachia, 14 to 0, November 3, 1934. The kickoff was returned by Appalachia to the 30-yard line. Virginia held them for downs, they kicked and Virginia returned the ball back to midfield. By the consistent charging of the line and backfield, the ball was carried to the five-yard line where Barker scored on a reverse but was called back for being in motion.

Howard picked up five yards and on the next play Wade went over for a touchdown. Wade kicked extra point; score, 7 to 0.

Appalachia gained new spirit in the second half. Virginia battled up and down the field until late in the fourth quarter we made a 60-yard march and scored on a pass from Barker to Sorah. Wade kicked extra point as the game ended with a score of 14 to 0.

JOKES

Tom Smith—"Everything I do, I try to do well. I just throw myself into it."
"Cotton" Jones—"Did you ever try digging a well?"

Forrest B.—"Charlotte, how do you know when it is morning?"
Charlotte W.—"I don't know."
Forrest B.—"Why, it dawns upon you."

Harriet C.—"This plant belongs to the begonia family."
Billy B.—"Nice of you to look after it while they are away."

Mrs. Smith—"What do you use to clean your rugs?"
Mrs. Jones—"I've tried lots of things, but I find 'Cotton' the best."

Tom Smith—"Does this train stop at Massachusetts Avenue?"
Julian M.—"Yes, watch me and get off three stations before I do."

Mr. King—"What kind of work is this?"
Joe Jones—"Oh! Just take it for granite."

Foreman—"Do you think you are capable of hard labor?"
George Calhoun—"Some of the best judges in the state have said so."

Employer—"Now, I hope you understand the importance of punctuation."
Mae Cassell—"Yes, I always get to work on time."

Carl B. (over the phone)—"Dear, I won't be home to dinner; I'm detained at the office."
Lois King—"No wonder. I don't see how you can get a thing done with that orchestra playing."

Carl B.—"I hear you and your girl friend had some words."
Forrest B.—"We did, that is, I had some but I didn't get a chance to use them."

Clyde M.—"My handkerchief and my nose are deadly enemies."
Bobby Boggs—"How is that?"
Clyde M.—"Everytime they meet they come to blows."

Charles Greever—"I want a pint of ice cream."
Soda Jerker—"Want to eat it or take it with you?"
Charles G.—"Both."

ANNUAL Craftsmen

The art of book making as developed in the 20th century requires the highest degree of skill. It demands artistic handling of type faces, many of which have a classic beauty in themselves. High grade presswork, which necessitates hours of tedious make-ready to bring out the contrast of light and shadow found in every engraving. And last, but not least, the bookbinding—the art preservative that cares for your book for years to come. Yes, we do all these things, and many more and our journeymen take pride in producing books, especially College Annuals, of which all of us are proud.
